

Manhattan Digest

ManhattanDigest.com
August 16, 2016

Where to Drink for National Lemonade Day this Saturday!

When you think of refreshing things to drink during the summertime, chances are the first one that comes to mind is of course Lemonade. Lemonade really is the perfect summertime drink, as it is cold, sweet, tart, and all things delicious. Well, with National Lemonade Day coming up this Saturday, several Manhattan mainstays are doing something special for the day so you can enjoy with your friends and family!

Take a look at what they have to offer- whether it is a fragrant, martini, spicy or boozy & berry filled, at least one of these places has you covered. Enjoy!

For Lemonade Martinis

Haven Rooftop (132 W 47th St.): Guests will find the best views of the Manhattan Skyline at this sunny rooftop restaurant in the heart of the Theater District. Its Eclipse lemon martini will be the perfect refreshment while soaking up the views, as it is made with fresh lemon juice, pineapple juice, New Amsterdam gin and Triple Sec.

For a Boozy, Berry-Filled Lemonade

Tender Steak & Sushi (132 W 47th St.): Located inside the beautiful Sanctuary Hotel, this Asian-fusion steakhouse offers a fresh twist to the boozy lemonade with The Blues. The drink is made with fresh lemon juice mixed with lime, muddled blueberries, agave, and New Amsterdam gin.