

Bunny hop into one of these fun Easter brunches

A drag queen bunny, egg decorating for grown-ups, free prosecco and more fun Easter Sunday brunches around New York City.

Adults tend to be left out of the Easter fun — not at Haven Rooftop. The Theater District bar, which remains covered until temperatures warm up, will have egg decorating, an egg hunt and its own Easter bonnet contest, so dress to impress. For brunch, options include the breakfast pizza (sunny-side eggs, mozzarella, tomato, bacon) and a special smoked salmon Benedict — as always, you can make it bottomless with mimosas, bloodies or sangria for $20. Sanctuary Hotel, 132 W. 47th St., havenrooftop.com
