

NYC City Guide: 4th of July Festivities 2018

This year, Macy's 4th of July Fireworks, the nation's largest pyrotechnic display, comes to life over the East River with barges stationed between East 23rd and 40th sts., putting a special spotlight on Greenpoint and Williamsburg Brooklyn. Beginning at approximately 9:25 pm, this year's dazzling spectacle will mark Macy's largest display since the Millennial Celebration with more than 75,000 shells accompanied by a rousing patriotic score from the West Point Band and Glee Club and featuring a special rendition of "God Bless America" from superstar Kelly Clarkson in honor of the 100th anniversary of "God Bless America" composer, Irving Berlin. From parks to historic 'hoods to rooftop lounges, there are tons of places in NYC to catch the kaleidoscope of color. Also make sure to cash in on some great dining specials happening around the city. Here are just a few.

Haven Rooftop

The Sanctuary Hotel is hosting a 4th of July celebration on its rooftop lounge, Haven in Midtown Manhattan where you can chow down on classic pretzels, hot dogs and hamburgers. Down these delicious all-American bites with its freedom slushies and craft cocktails.
