

July Fourth parties in NYC: Where to celebrate Independence Day

As America rings in its 242nd year on Independence Day, you could be on a rooftop, on a boat, in a party, at a show or enjoying the night air near the East River – there's really no limit to where you can celebrate July Fourth.

To help you narrow it down, we've picked the notable celebrations around the city to spend the holiday.

"Freedom slushies," giant Moscow mules and beer buckets are planned for this rooftop sanctuary, which opens at 11:30 a.m. on July 4. Pair the holiday drinks with something from Haven's grill menu, including hot dogs, hamburgers and pretzels or from its regular menu. (142 W. 47th St., havenrooftop.com)
